Answer: E
Explanation:
Explanation
Keep in mind that Facebook has minimum requirements for budgets; whether you use automatic or manual bidding, you have to meet the following minimum requirements:
* If the ad set gets charged for impressions, its daily budget must be at least $1 a day.
* If the ad set gets charged for clicks, likes, video views, or post engagement, its daily budget must be at least $5 a day.
* If the ad set gets charged for low-frequency events, like offer claims or app installs, its budget must be at least $40 a day.
In this case, 50 USD as a total budget for 20 days does not meet the minimum requirements for post engagement.Either you increase the budget to 100 USD or decrease timeline to 10 days to meet the $5 minimum daily budget.
