B. Is Equal To
C. Is Not Equal To
D. Any Are True
Answer: A,D

NEW QUESTION: 4
Derek is delivering a presentation to a group of trainees. During the presentation, the trainees will need to take comprehensive notes. How should Derek arrange the seats in the training room?
A. classroom style
B. Ushaped style
C. conference style
D. Chevron style
Answer: A
Explanation:
Explanation: Derek should arrange the seats in the classroom style. In this style, participants are placed behind desks facing towards the front of the room. This seating arrangement is most appropriate for presentations delivered by a single person, especially when the participants will need to be making notes. In conferencestyle seating, participants are placed around a large square table. In the Ushaped seating style, participants are placed around three sides of a large table, and the presenter stands on the fourth side. In the Chevron style of seating, participants are placed in rows that face the front of the room at an angle, so that they are facing both the presenter and, to a lesser extent, one another.
